

Cher Elyse Carden is an ordained minister, psychic medium, aromatherapy practitioner, colon therapist and artist who offers assistance to health seekers through a variety of services. For 25 years Cher has assisted clients who are looking for improved health and guidance during times of life changes and challenges. She is dedicated to helping her clients improve the quality of their life experience by offering specific tools to bring out each person's recuperative and resolution skills.

The Divine Diamond has made a profound difference in her life and she is pleased and honored to be a facilitator.